

“A Short, Performing, Story” Performance by Heman Chong

For a special exhibition “Travelers: Stepping into the Unknown”

The artist and writer Heman Chong (b. 1977, lives and works in Singapore) invites you to “A Short, Performing, Story” , a performative and participatory transaction consisting of a short story. The text contains 500 words and has never been read or published before. The instructor holds a copy of the text, while the participant has to learn the story verbatim, before he or she is allowed to leave the room.

LOCATION

NMAO B2 floor