

Invitation for the performance

“A Short, Performing, Story” (2018) by Heman Chong

The artist and writer Heman Chong (b. 1977, lives and works in Singapore) invites you to “A Short, Performing, Story”, a performative and participatory transaction consisting of a short story. The text contains 500 words and has never been read or published before. The instructor holds a copy of the text, while the participant has to learn the story verbatim, before he or she is allowed to leave the room.

LOCATION

NMAO B2 floor, gallery space

HOW TO BOOK

For English speaking participant, please contact via email (hashimoto@nmao.go.jp) and mention subject “story” and the day and time you’d like, at least two weeks before the desired day and time.

DURATION

Approx. 3 hours (depending on your memory)

Photo by Kazuo Fukunaga